CHEMICALS NO GOOD IS KLEIN'S VERDICT

PUT NO RELIANCE ON FIRE EXTINGUISHERS FOR FIRE PROTECTION CHIEF WARNS IN ADDRESS.

UTILITIES DISCUSSED

Gas, Electric and Water Plants Discussed From Scientific Standpoint at Twilight Club Meeting.

"Put no reliance on chemical extinguishers for fire protection," was the warning of Chief of the Fire Department H. C. Klein in an address Tuesday evening at the regular monthly meeting of the Twilight club at the Y. M. C. A. building. He branded the type of chemical apparatus generally in use as dangerous, entirely unsatisfactory and inefficient. The only effectiveness of the small hand extinguishers, he declared, was for putting out gasoline fires, for which they were admirably adapted. A half dozen hand-pumps costing less than five dollars apiece, are of more value in fighting fires than expensive chemical extinguishers costing $27.50 each, was the opinion of the chief.

"If you are relying for fire protection in your home, store or factory on either the large chemical extinguishers or the hand extinguishers, you may as well go and throw them out of the window before you have occasion to use them," Chief Klein announced. "In the case of the large extinguishers they may work and they may not, and they may blow your head off. Often a deposit formed from the action of the chemicals on the copper tank gathers at the nozzle with the result that the extinguisher fails to work when it is turned on in an emergency. The only use for the hand extinguishers which you see on the walls of so many stores, office buildings and homes, is for putting out gasoline fires. If turned on any other blaze, no matter how small it may be, it will cause at once so much dense smoke that it will drive you from the room. They are absolutely ineffective. Put no faith in them."

Chief Klein described the equipment of the Janesville fire department, which, within a short time will be practically motor driven. When the new apparatus, bids for which are now being received at the city clerk's office, is installed, there will be need for only two horses in the entire department. They will be used on the hook and ladder or on the fire engines in case they are needed. At the present time there are only four horses in the department, as compared with eleven horses five years ago. The present motor equipment includes the hose and chemical truck, the chief's car, and a hose car which has been added at small expense within the past month, an old touring car being made over for the purpose.

Fire hose, of which the local department has 5,500 feet, is one of the most vitally important items of equipment for fire fighting, declared Chief Klein. He supposed that, poor fire hose was the chief cause of more fire chiefs than any other one cause. Seventy per cent of the hose in the Janesville department, is first class and the rest is of doubtful quality. The pressure of the Janesville water department is sufficient to deliver 2,750 gallons a minute. This will give nine one-inch streams of one hundred pounds pressure at the nozzle, seven streams from one and one-eighth inch nozzle; six streams from one and one-fourth inch nozzle; four streams from one and one-half inch nozzle, and but two streams from a two inch nozzle.

Chief Klein explained briefly the workings of the fire alarm telegraph system, and demonstrated how an alarm is turned in from the boxes and how the number is recorded on the indicator at the central station by the use of apparatus set up for the purpose.

At the outset of his address, Chief Klein pointed out that fire hazards had immeasurably increased in late years owing to the modern type of buildings, heating apparatus, modern factories, apartments and dwellings. This called for more improved fire fighting methods on the part of fire departments. He criticized persons who were careless and negligent in sending in fire alarms promptly, who relied upon their own ability to put out the flames, or on fire insurance protection, while their neighbors' property might be endangered as a result.

Three public utilities, the electric, gas and water plants, were discussed most capably at last night's meeting, which was the science night program for the club. John Arbutnot, of the high school faculty was leader. Credit is due him for the interesting character of his talks presented by engineer for the Janesville Electric company, explained briefly and comprehensively the method of generating, measuring and distributing electric current. He explained the alternating current, the transformers which make possible the delivery of current at a voltage low enough for commercial purposes and various other details of the business. "It is plain," Mr. Arbutnot pointed out after Mr. Korst had finished, "that we are furnished with electric current free, but are charged for the power which it takes to produce it."

T. J. Lowth discussed the Janesville water system. He enumerated the types of physical equipment: three wells, two of them artesian; the pumping station, with two power pumps; the airing reservoir, the standpipes and the water mains. The pumps, only one of which is kept running, are capable of supplying 4,000,000 gallons of water a day to the city. The water is of unusually good quality and has been pronounced by Prof. E. Smith of Beloit College as one of the best grades of water in the whole country. There is absolutely no danger of a shortage.

Mr. Lowth explained that the water was forced through the mains by the pumps, and that the standpipes, which originally served as a supply reservoir, distributing the water by the gravity system, is merely acting as a cushion or governor.

A large amount of water is lost each day in waste or leakage, the plant being about 68 per cent efficient, which means that when it is known that the best plants are only about 85 per cent efficient. A saving might be effected, it was pointed out, if all the water used went directly to the consumers, on about one-half of the city being metered. The expense of installing meters, estimated at $25,000 for the rest of the city, would be in reality an economy, it was said.

L. P. Wortendyke of the New Gas Light company described the process of gas manufacture. The old method, explained, was to subject bituminous coal enclosed in an air tight vessel to an intense heat. The new method, the manufacture of water gas, involved the principle of passing steam over red hot carbon, which results in the forming of pure hydrogen and carbon monoxide. In the commercial manufacture a spray of oil is passed through the gas, in order to supply a product up to the standard heat producing test of 600 British thermal units. In addition the gas is passed through sand of crushed iron shavings in order to remove carbon disulphide which, if retained, would give off a most offensive odor in the gas as delivered. Mr. Wortendyke also explained the pressure storage tank by which the gas is distributed through the mains.

Despite inclement weather there was a large attendance at the banquet last evening, which was a splendid meal. The next meeting of the club will be the ladies night banquet, which will probably be held on the third Tuesday in April.

ROCKFORD MEN AT BANQUET TONIGHT

Many Business Men Will Attend Dinner at Myers Hotel Tonight to Discuss "No License" Question.

A large number of men have planned to attend the business men's dinner at the Myers Hotel this evening, at which time the question of a wet or dry Janesville will be discussed pro and con by all who care to voice their opinions. Three hundred invitations were sent out, and early this afternoon the replies received by J. M. Whitehead indicated that the discussion banquet will prove as popular as anticipated.

Talks by a number of local men arguing both sides of the question will be a part of the program that will endeavor to outline the question of local option as applied to Janesville in an enlightened, intelligent manner. David James, former state senator and mayor of Rockford Center, will be a guest of honor and will address a few words to the gathering. Other distinguished guests who will give their views on the results of prohibition as applied to their own cities will be C. W. Ferguson and E. E. Smith, Alex. McLaren and E. P. Wilson, aldermen in the city of Rockford, and John Baker of Evansville.

The dinner is scheduled to start promptly at seven o'clock to insure plenty of time for the discussion.

Held for Trial: John Hanrahan, in municipal court this morning, pleaded not guilty to drunkenness charges and went to jail in default of $200 bail to await trial on March 21.

WHITMAN'S DECISION SEES BOXING'S DOOM IN NEW YORK STATE

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, March 14.—Any idea any one might have had that boxing wasn't on its last legs and tottering precariously to its corner for the final round should be thoroughly dissipated by Gov. Whitman's action in New York when he refused to permit Darcy to appear in public bouts.

Whether it will keep into other states and knock the game clear out of the ring is something else and remains for time to tell.

Whitman was severely criticised in many quarters when he took this stand against Darcy, while in other parts he was highly commended.

Critics declared he should not have shown discrimination against Darcy, pointing out that Freddie Welsh, Tom Fowler, Ted Lewis and others are allowed to box without interference.

They are just as much at fault as is Darcy, for they are Englishmen, whereas Darcy is an Australian, and of Irish descent.

Whitman's action seems to have been taken because Darcy had neglected his duty to come to America and get some easy money. The promise of a foreigner coming here and separating New Yorkers from their cash because they were easy marks evidently didn't appeal to the governor.

The other English boxers, who were in this country when war was declared, were not taken into consideration.

Darcy made a frightful mistake when he refused to talk business with Mike Gibbons and promoters from the Middle West. Then, when he listened to bad advice and separated himself from Tim O'Sullivan, he made another bad step. Each of these actions caused adverse comment and the people began to kick.

Governor Whitman's attention naturally was called to what was going on. He couldn't have helped seeing it if he read the newspapers. Darcy wasn't complimented by any means in the things said about him. If Governor Whitman got the wrong impression it's his own fault.

The money grubbers among the boxers are fast choking the wind out of the goose that lays the golden egg. It wouldn't be at all surprising if every boxing law in the country was wiped off the books within two or three years.

BADGERS' SCORING NOT GOOD AS IN '16

Chandler in Lead With Vic Hemming and Olson Tied for Second Place Honors With Forty Points Each.

Madison, Wis., March 14.—The work of the Badger basketball shooters this year has not been as great as that of last year. The scoring records which have been compiled, including the Minnesota game, show that "Bill" Chandler leads the tossers with twenty-three field goals and twenty free throws. Olsen and Hemming are tied for second with forty points apiece. Lewis, who graduated in February, is third with thirty-six points.

In former years the Badgers have been the chief scorers in the conference. During the six years which Dr. Meanwell has acted as coach Wisconsin has had five years in point getting. This year, due to frequent shifting and changing of men, the scoring has been very much lower.

The scoring records of the men are:	F.G.	F.T.	P.
Chandler, center.....	23	20	56
Hemming, center.....	15	10	40

WISCONSIN TOSSERS END WORK THURSDAY

Expect Easy Victory Over Indiana at Bloomington—Assured of Third Place in Conference.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., March 14.—Dr. Meanwell and his squad of University of Wisconsin basketball tossers will leave Wednesday for Bloomington, where they will meet Indiana University on Thursday evening. This game is the last on the schedule for the Badgers. A victory in this game assures Wisconsin third place in the conference. The victory of Minnesota over Northwestern Monday night gives the Gophers a record of ten victories and two defeats. This record is the same as that of Illinois, who completed their schedule a week ago. The two teams are therefore tied for the leading position, with Wisconsin following.

The game with Indiana is expected to be fairly easy for the Wisconsin men because of the victory over the same team a week ago. The Badgers beat Indiana at Madison very decisively. The final count was 23 to 13. Dr. Meanwell is taking no chances, however, and has his men in the best of shape. Two hard scrimmages this week has put the edge on the men. Tuesday evening the freshmen scrimmaged the varsity, but were not very successful in their efforts to score over the guarding of Meyers and Carlson.

A win over Indiana will make nine victories for the Badgers and three defeats. The defeats came at the hands of Minnesota, Chicago and Illinois. In the games with these three teams the wins were split with each team winning on their home floor. Those who saw the Chicago defeat cannot as yet see how the Badgers lost.

Ten men will make the final trip in addition to Coach Meanwell and Manager William Lester. The men who will go are Captain Olsen, Carlson, Chandler, McIntosh, Meyers, Hemming, Simpson, Carroll, Bauer and Edler.

NEW YORK POLICE MEET SPEEDERS JUST HALF WAY.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, March 14.—The police of this city today inaugurated an experiment to ascertain whether citizens are willing to co-operate with the city authorities in enforcing the law. When a policeman spots a speeder, he does not arrest the offender at once unless the offense is flagrant, but sends his name and license number to headquarters. The speeder's record is investigated and if it is found that he has committed a similar offense previously, he is summoned before a magistrate to plead his case. If it is evident that automobilists do not appreciate this treatment, the Police Department, after a thorough test, will abandon the system of giving speeders a chance.

In the northwestern section, Galesville meets Eau Claire, Washburn meets Superior. The southern section rests between Monroe, Lancaster, Baraboo, Hillsboro, Edgerton, Burlington and West Bend. Monroe meets Lancaster. Baraboo meets Hillsboro. Edgerton meets the winner.

JANESVILLE GREYS MEET MILTON JUNCTION TEAM

The Janesville Greys, an organized basketball team, are scheduled to play Ray Hall's team from Milton Junction Thursday night at 7:30. The Greys traveled to Milton Junction early in the season and were defeated by the decisive score of 13 to 10. The Milton Junction team has a good record, as they have won sixteen out of twenty games played. The Greys also have a good record as they have only lost one game and that to Milton Junction. The game is to be played on the rink floor. The players that are to represent the Greys are as follows: McKinley, rf.; Erickson, lf.; Meyer, c.; Moore, pg.; Anderson, capt., lg.

THE COST.

It would appear as though the railroad brotherhoods of this country were about to plunge the country into a worse condition than even a declaration of war with a European power would be by their threatened strike.

For the sake of political expediency the Adams law was passed and the "three" congress, just previous to the election, its legality has been tested but no decision has as yet been rendered by the supreme court of the United States.

It is therefore on our statutes and the brotherhoods mean to press the question at the present time, taking advantage of the unfortunate condition of the country.

The actual strike has not yet been made, but it is safe to say that every local in the various orders have their printed instructions, simply waiting for code words to fill in the exact time and date when it is to occur.

That it will cripple all lines of industry, already seriously handicapped by the present car shortage, is to be expected as a natural result.

During the last period of the year it will work untold hardships in many localities where shipments of materials and fuel are needed to keep large factories running, employing thousands of laborers.

The demand apparently is for ten hours' pay for eight hours' work, and overtime and extras for all other work performed. The justice of these demands can be judged upon light-weights, but it is not the railroads, but the public, the working man, the merchant, the factory owner, in fact every line of industry that must suffer if the strike actually comes, and it is not fair that a hundred million people should be made to suffer to settle the differences of possibly four to five hundred thousand workers in a special class.

There has been so much adverse legislation in various states against the railroads that they have suffered material losses and consequently in their efforts to retrench the public have suffered. To accept the demands of the brotherhoods means further loss unless permission is given them to raise their freight rates and passenger fares, in which case the public will pay the penalty, as usual.

On the other hand they may accept the demands, and to meet the demands they will have to raise their freight rates and passenger fares, in which case the public again suffers inconvenience and loss. In plain words, the public will pay its share and pay it either directly in raised rates or indirectly in increased cost of living.

While the total figures that are given to the public by the foreign diplomatic powers are much less than had been anticipated, still they aggregate a tremendous amount of tonnage which means much more ship building on the part of the allied nations in the future and gives the United States an unparalleled opportunity to build up its merchant marine.

WAR AND THE BOY SCOUTS.

A program has been issued of work of the Boy Scouts in war. They are to be under first aid, send messages, wireless or semaphore, help protect property and give alarm in case of danger, etc.

Of the 200,000 Scouts enrolled in this country a large part are already practicing signals and other preparations with the war possibility in view. The little fellows look quite serious and business-like in their uniforms, and no doubt already feel the weight of nation's resting on them.

In England, where every adult male is supposed to be assigned to more serious work, the Scouts are filling a pretty big hole. In this country, they could do just as well. Only if the enemy were nowhere in sight for thousands of miles, the patrol duty might become a good deal of a task and not a duty, and be relieved by many diversions.

A boy is a boy after all, and can't be wholly a soldier save in grave emergency.

NEW POLICE PLANT. PLANS ARE ORDERED

COMMISSION ORDERS BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS TO SUBMIT PLANS FOR BUILDING AT FIRE STATION.

STREET WORK STARTS

Recommendations for North Bluff and South Franklin Streets Meet With Approval—Will Advertise for Bids.

Ordering the board of public works to draw plans and specifications for a lockup building, to be erected at the rear of the present East Side fire station, the city commission yesterday inaugurated the movement which will fix the location of the new lockup quarters in the city hall building and will also combine the two downtown fire units into one, with the consolidation of the companies and their event hall housing in the West Side station on River street. The board will present the plans at a later meeting for inspection and approval.

Providing they meet with the favor of the council the plans will then be submitted to the Industrial Commission for their approval. The building is to be erected at the rear of the present East Side fire station. Should the state commission find the building plans satisfactory, the building will be pushed at once to permit the moving of the city hall and the offices of the police department just as soon as it is possible.

It has been in the mind of Mayor Fath for some years. "With the motorizing of the fire department," he says, "both downtown companies can be accommodated in the same station, most centrally located, the West Side. The fire hazards are greatly lessened with the facilities to make quick runs, and the moving of the East Side station is not expected to prove disastrous in any way to the east side of the river. As it is now, the station is a hindrance to the traffic at the scene of the blaze as quickly as the motor from the east side."

It will be some months before the actual changes are made, even though they meet with the approval of the entire commission. Present plans are to erect a modern jail building at the rear of the fire station. A separate compartment for women will be built in the station itself. A little remodeling of the building will give spacious quarters for squadroom and offices, and downstairs the police motor will be housed.

In addition to the new police station project the commission went on record as favoring the first portion of the big street improvement schedule, as approved by the board of public works. This covered the permanent surfaces for North Bluff street and South Franklin street. The plans and specifications proposed by the board were accepted. The board will now advertise for bids. The foundations will be of concrete with finished surface to be decided upon later.

Superintendent of Streets Commissioner P. J. Goodman was instructed to gravel Fifth avenue, between Glen and Hyatt streets, and Court street, between Elm and Ringold streets. The commission received and placed on file the first filing petition to be filed for the season of 1917. The petition was for the widening of North Bluff street property owners between Linn and Locust streets, and also received and ordered filed the petition of North Bluff street property owners for the extension of the sanitary sewer on this highway.

Cement curb and gutters, as listed by the Gazette last night, were approved and were also ordered to be laid.

JANESVILLE STORES COMBINE OPENINGS

Leading Merchants of the City Agree to Hold Their Spring Openings on the Same Dates.

What promises to be a most unusual and interesting occasion will be the formal openings of Janesville's leading stores on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 22nd, 23rd and 24th. Rather than have the old-fashioned scattered openings over two or three weeks, the merchants have decided that the shopping public would much rather have the openings held at one time during the day than the old-fashioned scattered openings over two or three weeks. The merchants have decided that the shopping public would much rather have the openings held at one time during the day than the old-fashioned scattered openings over two or three weeks.

The committee will be delighted to have the display windows of this city.

THE HUMAN SIDE OF SIR JOHN JELICOE

SLEET STORM PLAYS HAVOC WITH WIRES

JANESVILLE ALMOST CUT OFF FROM OUTSIDE WORLD WHEN GALE AND SLEET BREAK WIRES AND POLES.

CAR POWER LINE DOWN

No Traffic on Interurban or City Lines Since Power Was Cut Off Yesterday Afternoon.

As a result of the terrific sleet storm which swept over a large part of the middle west, the city of Janesville was practically cut off from the rest of the world for several hours during the night, and even now telegraph and telephone connections with other points are but few. The worst damage reported by any one company is that of the Bell telephone company which sustained damages amounting to $100,000 in Southern Wisconsin alone.

Wisconsin was hit hardest by the storm, which swept down from the northwest, delaying trains from Duluth and Superior six hours and more. The city was hindered through the night both by the storm itself and by the lack of telegraphic communication, which made travel slow and in some cases held trains for one point.

Crews of men are at work on all telephone and telegraph lines, both railroad and commercial, with the hope of gradually getting the lines into shape. All companies expected to have at least one wire operating to each of the neighboring large cities by late this afternoon.

In addition to broken wires and impaired service, many poles in the city have been blown down. The West of this city, in the neighborhood of Brodhead, many telephone poles are down, while to the east the damage is reported to be less. Between Chicago and Milwaukee fifteen solid miles of poles were down. Damages of as serious a nature as this will require some time to repair. Normal service will not be possible on some lines for some time.

Street car and interurban traffic has been entirely suspended. The interurban line here at one o'clock yesterday afternoon. The power line was broken on the other side of Rockton early in the storm, and it is not expected that service will be resumed before tomorrow.

Through the early afternoon the street cars struggled with the slippery rails and even when the power was brought to a standstill when the power was cut off by a break below Rockton at about two o'clock. The ice formed on the rails and the tracks, though the power circuit was repaired, traffic could not be resumed until the tracks had been cleared. Early this afternoon gangs of men had opened up the tracks, but no interurban cars had started running.

High winds which prevailed throughout this morning blew down some of the telegraph wires which had been broken during the sleet storm, with the result that it is impossible for any of the companies to know just how long service with some particular points will be maintained. The Western Union Telegraph company reported at noon today that one wire to Milwaukee and one to Chicago, with the lines in between, had been broken. The company one line to Madison was the only one kept open by the Postal though they expected service to be in reasonable shape by tonight. The Bell telephone company maintained one wire to Beloit, and now has one to Madison and one to Milwaukee, though the Chicago service is out off.

Mr. J. H. Snyder declared that trains would be running on schedule from all points as soon as the weather had abated. Trains from the north had been held up for some time, but now they are reaching town today report the roads in frozen bad shape, and the inches of frozen slush on the city streets and many of the walks has made walking difficult and even dangerous.

Let up in the high wind with a possible rise in the temperature predicted for tonight and tomorrow will be the good news. Normal conditions are looked for by tomorrow if the weather breaks.

TO BOTTLE WATER OF CLINTON SPRING

Clinton, March 13.—A company has been formed in Milwaukee to market the spring water from the R. B. Snyder springs, two miles east of this city, and they expect to commence shipping by the first of April. It appears that the concerns that are now supplying water are unable to meet the demand and it was found imperative to look further for an absolutely pure supply. Mr. Windsor of Milwaukee, while at Mr. Snyder's last summer, aspired with the idea which is now being worked out. He has interested several of the city health officials in the project and as a result a company has been formed, as before stated. The water will be bottled at the springs and shipped in cases in car lots for immediate delivery. Enough orders have been received to start shipment of one car per week, and as soon as the business warrants a spur will be built from the C. M. & St. P. right of way at Snyder's to the city, because the water is so pure.

An auto party en route to Beloit to take the train for Madison to attend the bankers' farmers' convention, composed of E. H. Kemmerer, George Huber and M. H. Cheeseman, Michelson in attempting to get out of a rut lost control of the machine and ran into a telephone pole. The pole was damaged and the right fender and steering gear. The party returned to Clinton and proceeded to Madison for repairs. They were en route Sunday at Woodstock, at the home of her brother.

BERLIN CRIMINAL CAUGHT BY FOOD CARD SYSTEM

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Berlin, March 13.—The food card system in Germany, however much of a nuisance it may be for the housewives, has materially aided the police and military authorities in one respect. It has occurred again—a thing that had often occurred before—that a man wanted in connection with a crime surrendered himself to the police because he was unable to obtain food cards, and these he could not obtain without registering himself at the police station of his precinct.

DYNAMITE SCARE ROUSES LINN ST. LATE LAST NIGHT

Home of Harold B. Jones Is Target for Man Who Hurls Cylinders—Police Have Suspicion.

Right on top of the bevy of scares and excitements, viz., the "Raffles" burglary, a "Jack-the-Peeper," the unexplainable vanishing of Edward Albright and the search for the missing Miss Sims of Chicago, came a regular dynamite scare, either a la German (the a la is French of course) or a la Black Hand. But digest it as you may, it turned more than one person white above the collar last night. A police officer in the city hall station jumped a foot high off his chair when a lady with a highly excited voice in spasmodic gulps urged them to hurry just as fast as they could as somebody had thrown a stick of dynamite through the window into the kitchen of her house in the attempt to destroy the building and kill its occupants.

After some minutes, during which the lady composed and collected herself, the station learned that the home of Harold B. Jones, 209 Linn street, was the target for the explosive hurler. They hurried there.

Mrs. Jones cautiously led the way to the kitchen and the spotlight from an officer's electric torch located the dynamite where it rested on the floor. They saw where it broke the window pane and saw where it struck against the wall, but failed to explode.

"Furny dynamite," suggested an officer. Then they advanced upon it. "Certainly it is the real stuff," admitted another officer. He picked up the red paper wrapped around the stick ten inches long and an inch thick.

"Better call the chief," responded the officer. "Right away," responded the chief to a telephone call. The chief was just leaving his residence when his phone bell rang again. "Stuff's not dynamite, chief," he said. "It's only a railroad fuse."

The chief returned to bed. Mrs. Jones' husband is a Northwestern roundhouse employe at South Janesville. He was working when the scare occurred, the police found.

FEAR OF STARVING IS DISEASE IN GERMANY

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Amsterdam, March 14.—An article is being widely printed in Germany dealing with the control of a new "war disease," that German doctors have to combat. Having much to do with the old war diseases, cholera, typhus, spotted fever and small pox, they now face "psychological starvation."

This disease, says the article, is of a much more difficult character, as it is mental and is quickly spread from one sufferer to another. It is found, strangely enough, in peace time, but in war time it is more rampant. "It is first a fear of starvation and out of this fear rises a sort of psychological hunger. This confusion of ideas is some times exciting, some times crying and robs one of courage and sense."

Fear of starving will cause many to make luxurious use of available supplies, to use all sorts of tricks in order to attain their ends. It is a disease with a reserve layer of fat for times of still greater scarcity. "In thousands of letters, mostly written by women, the writers speak of nothing but the fear of ultimate starvation."

ESTATES

When a man makes us executor for his estate every provision of his will will be followed out to the letter. It is far better to entrust such matters to us than to an individual, as individuals are likely to die before the estate has been settled, thus causing unnecessary delay and legal procedure, whereas this company is a perpetual institution, with a large capital and surplus, and nearly all of the stock is owned by stockholders of the Rock County National Bank.

The play, "The Parish Priest," which will be presented March 18, by local talent from the Ancient Order of Hibernians and Ladies' Auxiliary to the A. O. H. will be a most appropriate play for this day and purpose. Mr. Jack Daley, director of the Jack Bessey company, and Joseph P. Farrell, director of the Christy's company, both of whom cordially endorsed this play, and cordially endorsed it as being one of unusual merit. It is a royalty play, in which Daniel Sullivan formerly starred, and may Janesville people who can remember seeing it vouch for its being worthy of every praise.

The plot, which is from the pen of W. S. Gilbert, is interesting and holds the attention of the audience till the final curtain. An added feature of the evening's entertainment will be some specialties between the acts, the drama from nearby towns for tickets indicates that interest in the play is widespread, and that the efforts of the Janesville Hibernians to encourage and foster amateur drama are meeting with popular endorsement. Further information with regard to tickets and reserve seats will be found in advertisements in this paper.

News Notes from Movieland

News Notes from Movieland
As the heroine of "A Daughter of the Poor," Bessie Love in her next picture takes the part of a young girl with an inherent hatred for wealth and all that wealth implies, who finally falls in love with the son of a millionaire, mistaking him for a poor chauffeur. Bessie keeps house for her lazy uncle, who would rather smoke his pipe and rail against life than utilize his muscles. Uncle keeps telling her that he would be worth millions if it were not for his heartless employer, who forces him to work as night watchman at beggarly wages. But Bessie finally gets a line on the real state of affairs when she visits the factory and finds her relative asleep on the job, while the owner of the factory is working overtime. When she discovers that her lover is rich instead of being a downtrodden worker, an opportunity is presented for some of the most telling comedy that the little star has yet achieved.

HOW TO SUCCEED
"Making good in pictures requires in a girl many of the same characteristics that would make her a successful private secretary," says Anne Luther. "There is nothing occult or mysterious about that part of it."

"Getting a tryout is chiefly a matter of persistence, some promise of talent, and possibly good looks. But staying on the ladder and climbing rung after rung is a different matter."

"What makes a good secretary? I've never been one, but I've had several. First, I would put loyalty; second, initiative; third, a readiness for the portance of details; and fourth, belief in the dignity and importance of her job."

There is nothing fancy about the requirements of the same character, thinks I would bank on in most any girl that I was training to play in pictures."

MYERS THEATRE.The Garden of Allah.

That big, gorgeous, romantic drama, "The Garden of Allah," dramatized by Robert Hichens and Mary Anderson de Navarro, will be the attraction at the Myers theatre, matinee and night, Saturday, March 24th.

The four main parts into which "The Garden of Allah" is divided are subdivided into nine scenes or settings. Two of the most pretentious and alluring of these scenes are shown twice in the course of one performance.

The scene of the garden of Count Antonio, which is displayed throughout part two and is shown again in the epilogue, and a section of the desert at Mogar, which is shown as part three under the varying atmospheric conditions of evening and dawn. Beautiful and varied in their appeal to the eye and ear, are these scenes as they are unfolded in a procession that means much to the reader of the book, and even more perhaps to the playgoer.

THE BOOT SHOP IS CLOSED

For the purpose of arranging stock, cutting prices and making final preparations for the closing out sale. The selling must be quick and decisive. The die is cast! The doom is sealed.

The Boot Shop will be a thing of the past in a very short time. Every pair of shoes in the house and all fixtures to be sold. Shelving, tables, chairs, show case, safe and cash register for sale. All our new Spring shipments of latest style dress shoes will be sacrificed and sold out. Remember, this is not a cheap sale of odds and ends—it's a bon-a-fide closing out of one of Janesville's best shoe stores.

Sale opens Friday, March 16, at 9 A. M.

QUITTING BUSINESS

Like a thunderbolt from a clear sky comes this startling and extraordinary announcement—The Boot Shop is going out of business. The entire stock consisting of over $25000.00 worth of high grade footwear will be thrown on the market and closed out. Other business interests and future plans require a complete selling out and an absolute disposal of every last pair of boots and shoes in the house. We are through with the shoe business and shall quit just as soon as the stock is sold out. The very best makes and latest Spring styles all included all to go! All will be on sale at low prices. All men's shoes must go! All women's shoes must get out! All boy's and girl's shoes will be forced out. This is the end and the finish of the Boot Shop! It is not a profit making sale nor a clearance sale—we mean just what we say—we are quitting business. If you want the very latest and best shoes of the world's best makers at less than today's actual wholesale cost, come and get them.

SALE OPENS FRIDAY, MARCH 16th, AT 9. A. AND CONTINUES UNTIL EVERYTHING IS SOLD

PLEASE REMEMBER

A PERSONAL STATEMENT TO THE PUBLIC

A Personal Statement to the Public. Wholesale prices of shoes have been climbing skyward for the past two years and are still going up by leaps and bounds. These intolerable business conditions make it impossible to sell good shoes at reasonable prices and remain in business. I have decided to quit—other future plans make this imperative. The Boot Shop is well known for handling best quality shoes. The integrity of this store has never been questioned, therefore it is not necessary to remind you that the same square deal policy will be observed during the closing out as in the past five years. I trust that all the friends and patrons of the Boot Shop will get their full share of this wonderful money saving sale. (Signed) GLENN G. SNYDER, Prop. Boot Shop.
